

Screen 1

← What will 2025 bring for disabled people?

Transcript  ^

The work capability assessment is designed to assess

⏮️  ⏭️

Speed x 1

Full Summary  Story Map

0:07:27 0:33:21

Live Summary  ^

Live recap goes here.

Recap Last 30s

Screen 2

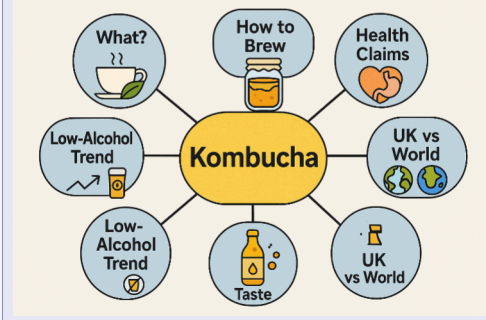

← Chapter Map

Episode Chapters

Low-Alcohol Boom & Kombucha Focus Why Kombucha? Health-Claim Teaser Meet Oldtree Brewery Ko Su

Go to Selected Chapter

Story Map

What? How to Brew Health Claims Low-Alcohol Trend UK vs World Low-Alcohol Trend Taste UK vs World

Characters

Live Summary

Full Summary  Story Map

0:02:58 0:09:08

Live Summary  ^

A history reporter tells how UKIP began. In 1993, a London professor named Alan Sked started the party because he thought the European Union had too many rules and cost Britain money..

Recap Last 60s

Suggestions:

Tell me more about key points

Explain important concepts

Provide background information

Word Lookup

For many of us, when we hear the word ignorance, we immediately think of politics.

Word: ignorance

Lack of knowledge or information

Close

Full Summary

Full Summary  ^

Emma Tracy rings in 2025 with cheers and a small bell. She talks with a reporter, a charity head, and a health expert about plans for disabled people. They share new-year goals, like better work-life balance and safer benefit rules. Listeners get email and WhatsApp details and hear that more voices are coming.

↓ Complexity Level ↑

Content Selection

Wellbeing

What will 2025 bring for disabled people? BBC Audio

Hospital Food at a Turning Point BBC Audio

Kombucha: The Miracle Drink BBC Audio